ANNUAL NOTIFICATION OF NONDISCRIMINATION

TO: All Parents, Students, Employees, Job Applicants and the General Public

FROM: Joseph Taylor, Superintendent

RE: Compliance with Title IX, Section 504, ADA and the Florida Educational Equity Act

The Washington County School District offers the following career and technical programs to high school students wherein they may earn industry certifications in: Microsoft Bundle, Agra-Technology 3.0, Serve Safe Certification, Autodesk Inventor Certified User Certification and Florida Engineering. These programs are open to all students.

The Florida Panhandle Technical College offers a variety of career and technical programs wherein students may earn industry certification. Please see the current FPTC student handbook or the FPTC website for a full list of industry certification programs and criteria for enrollment.

The District prohibits discrimination in the terms and conditions of employment and in access to educational programs and activities, and prohibits harassment of any individual or group on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, age, disability, pregnancy, marital status, sexual orientation or genetic information.

Lack of English language skills will not be a barrier to admission and participation. The district may assess each student's ability to benefit from specific programs through placement tests and counseling, and, if necessary, will provide services or referrals to better prepare students for successful participation.

The School Board Policy and the Procedures related to the prohibition of discrimination and the grievance procedures for resolution of a complaint, are available upon request in each school office, the Florida Panhandle Technical College office, the District's website, the PAEC office and in the Superintendent's office.

Violations, questions or complaints, of the provisions, of the Florida Educational Equity Act, Section 504, Title IX or the Americans with Disabilities Act should be reported to:
